

Promote this great site!

i think that we are not getting the full value out of this site, especially with all the time, effort, and money dansari has put into it and plus, it would be much cooler, if people actually utilized this site as a high influence in deciding their equipment thus, i propose that we advertise this somehow, maybe we can go on mytt and wear the site in our sig? or maybe in any topics asking about equipment, we can redirect them here? i really want to increase the traffic on this great site.

I wish I had a review of Mizuno Wave Spike shoes, because I just went to Sport Chek and bought a pair (I'm playing badminton tonight, too bad I didn't have them for tt last night).

Thanks for the proposal - if you link to my site from the forums, that would definitely help. Especially threads where people are reviewing stuff - if you could try to persuade them to put their reviews here, that would be great.
