Win Killerspin Blast and Fortissimo rubbers

Posted by admin - 2010/05/18 10:32

Come and register and post a review or two, and have a great chance at winning one of these two incredible new rubbers from Killerspin.

The more points you accrue each month, the higher chance you have of winning.

Let's make this a contest!

And the winners are:

Austin and icontek! Congratulations, they'll be receiving a Killerspin rubber each.

(We'll also be looking forward to their reviews after playing with the rubber.)

_____

Congratulations this month to AllezCho and HenryxP, winners of Killerspin Blast and Fortissimo rubbers!

Please PM me to indicate your preference as to which one you would prefer; if there is a conflict then I'll toss a coin to determine who gets what.

Let's get some reviews and postings here for July, and have your chance to win these rubbers at the end of the month again!

PS Past winners cannot enter this contest again, but there is another contest that you will qualify for (details of this will be forthcoming).
