ClashSport.com - 1000s of table tennis videos

Hey guys,

I just released a new table tennis video site:

ClashSport

Basically, it organizes the videos of table tennis matches being posted to YouTube (and trust me, there's a lot). It organizes all this around players so that you can easily watch the matches with your favorite players. I have a lot of plans for the site, including adding more videos and players, and a "sit back" continuous viewing experience.

Please let me know any feedback you guys have, and enjoy!

James
